

Freedman Consulting, LLC: Phillip Bevington Policy & Research Internship

The Phillip Bevington Policy & Research Internship with Freedman Consulting provides an opportunity for undergraduate students to be involved at the intersection of policy and politics, learn about high-level strategic communications, and interact with a diverse client-base.

As a boutique consulting firm, we aim to provide a learning experience and substantive engagement, including the chance to work directly with staff at all levels of the firm on a regular basis. Freedman Consulting offers strategic consulting services to foundations, nonprofit organizations, and public interest coalitions, advising many of the nation's leading philanthropic institutions. Our work includes strategic planning and issue landscaping for major foundations, campaign advising and coordination for coalitions, public-private partnership creation and support, and policy development for a variety of advocacy and political campaigns. The firm offers paid internships on a semester basis. Currently, all internships are remote.

Our internship program is named in memory of Phillip Bevington, a childhood friend of firm president Tom Freedman, who embodied decency, kindness, intelligence, and commitment. As part of your application, please include in a portion of your cover letter details about how you exhibit these qualities in your personal and academic life.

We're looking for individuals who are team-oriented, intellectually curious, and who have strong attention to detail. Excellent writing and organizational ability are required and previous research experience is preferred. Interns will have a chance to assist with projects across a variety of issue areas.

The internship offers students an opportunity to:

- Contribute to projects through high-level research and writing
- Support the creation of strategic policy deliverables, including memos and reports
- Gain skills in communications and messaging, coalition management, and issue tracking
- Explore and deepen understanding on a variety of policy issues

We are currently accepting applications for Fall 2022. The internship is part-time at 15-20 hours per week and will begin in September 2022. If you are interested in applying to our undergraduate internship program, please complete your application here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/RT5OXOC>. Applications must include a resume and a cover letter (with a portion dedicated to addressing the qualities listed above). Please include in your cover letter the state you will reside in for the duration of the internship which typically runs from September 2022-December 2022.

The internship is fully remote. Applicants residing in the following states during the internship will be considered: California, District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, Michigan, Illinois, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania, and North Carolina. Priority will be given to currently enrolled undergraduates and applications received on or before midnight, June 30, 2022.
