

Freedman Consulting, LLC: Contracts Manager
Remote or Washington, DC*

Freedman Consulting, LLC, a strategic consulting firm, seeks a detail-oriented Contracts Manager to support client, contractor, and vendor contracting, and contract compliance. As a member of the Finance team supporting a 40+ person firm, the Contracts Manager will play an integral role working internally and externally, to ensure effective contracting processes and review, and compliance.

Freedman Consulting, LLC, a mission-driven firm, offers strategic consulting services to foundations, nonprofit organizations, and public interest coalitions, advising many of the nation's leading philanthropic institutions. Our work includes strategic planning and issue landscaping for major foundations, campaign advising and coordination for coalitions, public-private partnership creation and support, and policy development for a variety of advocacy and political campaigns.

Reporting to the Vice President of Finance and Contracts, primary responsibilities for the Contracts Manager include:

- Managing contract and grant review, evaluation, and compliance processes in coordination with project teams and developing new contracts when needed
- Compiling and submitting grant applications and reports
- Tracking and updating contract status for all clients
- Processing agreements with vendors and independent contractors; coordinating with external accounting firm as needed
- Contributing to firm data management, leading CRM population of contract information

Qualifications of the Ideal Candidate:

Approximately 5-7 years of previous contracting and/or grants management, operations, and/or financial management experience is preferred. Candidates must have demonstrated strong attention to detail, organizational and project management skills, and a strong level of proactivity and ability to drive work independently. Prior experience collaborating across internal teams and external vendors is preferred.

The salary range for this position is $80,000-$95,000
